PRIMARY SOURCES FOR FAMILY LAW

NEW YORK CODE

The New York code is a subject arrangement (titles) of laws currently in effect for New York State. The two unofficial codes discussed herein, “McKinney’s” and the “CLS”, include references and notes to aid the researcher in understanding the specific law consulted.

- McKinney’s Consolidated Laws of New York, Annotated (McKinney’s) KFN 5030 .A43; Stack 1 & Floor 3
 - Arranged by Title & Section number Ex. Domestic Relations Law, Sec. 240 et seq.
 - Subject index to entire set. Ex. “Custody of Children”.
 - Family Law related forms are available in a separate set: McKinney’s Forms KFN 5068 .W4 Stack 1
- New York Consolidated Laws Service: Annotated Statutes With Forms (CLS), KFN 5030 .A45; Stack 1
 - Text of laws identical to McKinney’s.
 - Forms are included following statutes
- McKinney’s Law and the Family New York, West Group, 2000 KFN 5115.M27
 This publication is a collection of Family Law and related titles found in the New York code. It contains the Domestic Relations Law, the Family Court Act, and Social Services Law, plus selected sections from the Civil Practice Law and Rules, Civil Rights Law, Code of Professional Responsibility, and New York Rules of Court, as they relate to families.

NEW YORK CASE RESEARCH

Case Law Reporters:

Court cases pertaining to New York Family Law matters are found in different case law reporters. These reporters are compilations of court decisions, arranged in chronological order by jurisdiction and court. Citations to the different New York case reporters are provided below:

- New York Reports (NY) and New York Reports, 2nd (NY2d) KFN 5045 .A33; Stack 1
 - Official reporter of cases from the NY Court of Appeals.

- Coverage 1847 – present.
- Ex. Eschbach v Eschbach, 56 N.Y. 2d 167

New York Digest, 2d, 3d, 4th KFN 5057 .A32 Stack 1

The New York Digest is a case law finding tool. It contains abstracts of court decisions, arranged by subject. The New York Digest is used to locate specific cases in the New York case reporters. For further information on the use of this digest for Family Law research see the law library pathfinder entitled: "West Case Reporters and Digests."

SECONDARY SOURCES FOR FAMILY LAW RESEARCH

Secondary sources provide the researcher with a general overview of a topic and identify, with citations, the relevant primary law that relate to a topic. These sources should be used to find citations or references to primary sources (the law) and to gain an overview of a particular subject such as divorce, custody or adoption, etc.

Secondary Family Law sources include:

- Encyclopedias
- Practice materials
- Treatises & texts
- Form books
- Journal literature

National Encyclopedias

There are two national legal encyclopedias that broadly cover the topic of Family Law. The various aspects of Family Law are reviewed with footnote references to case law, statutes, regulations and other primary sources. Both encyclopedias, American Jurisprudence 2d (Am Jur 2d) and Corpus Juris Secundum (CJS) offer an overview of Family Law topics from a multi-jurisdictional perspective.

American Jurisprudence 2d*, West Pub., Location: Floor 3 (Encyclopedia Wall).

Sample citation: 24A Am Jur 2d, "Divorce & Separation"

Corpus Juris Secundum* (CJS), West Pub., Location: Floor 3 (Encyclopedia Wall)

Sample citation: 28 CJS "Domestic Abuse & Violence"

Encyclopedias: New York

- New York Jurisprudence 2nd, West Publishing KFN5065.N48 Floor 3 (Reference Wall)

This encyclopedia covers a broad range of legal issues pertaining to New York Family Law. Family Law matters are discussed under the subject of "Domestic Relations" in volumes 45 through 48A of New York Jurisprudence 2nd. These volumes offer a topical treatment of such matters as: marriage, divorce, parent-child, adoption, neglect, etc. All topics discuss principles of law and provide citations to supporting cases, New York state and federal statutes, New York regulations, and cross references to other law sources.

New York Family Law Practice Materials

New York practice materials offer practical advice on various aspects of New York Family Law and provide interpretation of relevant cases, statutes or rules. These resources are housed in Stack 1 of the law library. The following titles are representative of the New York Family Law practice collection available in the law library.
