

Current Issues in the Representation of Children in Family Law Cases

November 6, 2008
11:30 am-12:45 pm
Room 204 College of Law
Lunch will be provided.

Margaret Burt, Esq.

Ms. Burt is a national lecturer and consultant on child welfare issues such as permanency planning, termination of parental rights, and foster care adoption. She provides training to New York State child protective, preventive, and foster care workers as well as agency caseworkers, judges, and attorneys across the state of New York. Ms. Burt is a past recipient of the Hon. Delores Denman Award for "Unique Contributions to the Standards of Excellence in Representation of Children."

This event is free and open to all Syracuse University students, faculty, and staff.

For more information: contact Heidi McCormick at hawhite@law.syr.edu

