The College of Law provides an estimate of the costs that are reasonable for a student to attend Syracuse University College of Law and pursue the J.D. degree program. Figures 1 and 2 (below) represent actual tuition and fees for a 2L student engaged in full-time study for the 2009-2010 academic year.

Expenses within the budget categories 3 through 9 (below) may vary from student to student. These variations are acceptable as long as they do not exceed the maximum of $62,200. For figures 3 through 9 take into account all of your actual and expected expenses for one academic year of study, which extends from late August 2009 through May 2010.
