

Hank Hultquist

Assistant Vice President of Advanced & Competitive Services, AT&T

Mr. Hultquist joined AT&T (then SBC) in 2004. His duties include responsibility for regulatory policy for IP networks and IP-enabled services. Prior to joining AT&T, he worked for eight years at MCI, where he most recently served as Director, Federal Advocacy. Mr. Hultquist is a graduate of the George Mason University School of Law and Georgetown University School of Foreign Service.

